

STONE LABORATORY 2016

Ohio State's Island Campus on Lake Erie

Hospitality Internship

Two Full-Time Positions Available

Salary: Starting at $8.50/hr (commensurate with experience), housing and some meals included

Location: F.T. Stone Laboratory, Put-in-Bay, Ohio

Dates: Mid-April to late October 2016 (flexible beginning and end dates)

SUMMARY OF DUTIES

These internship positions are offered to The Ohio State University students through the College of Education and Human Ecology (Consumer Sciences 3191 internship program). Other applicants should arrange for internship credit through their home institution.

Selected individuals must be dedicated to customer service and the mission of providing a healthy and safe learning environment and supportive living and dining conditions for Stone Lab students. Duties include, but are not limited to, meal planning and preparation, special event planning and all aspects of dormitory operation, including scheduling and housekeeping. Applicants may be subject to a security check.

F.T. Stone Laboratory, The Ohio State University's island campus, is the Lake Erie research and teaching laboratory for the Ohio Sea Grant College Program. Course credits are based on The Ohio State University semester credit system and are transferable to most colleges and universities.
