

Cooke Castle

(1910) Seated at the writing desk on the first floor library, Henry Cooke, son of Jay Cooke, makes a July 1910 entry in the Gibraltar Records. The Cooke family and their guests kept extensive records of their visits to Gibraltar in six volumes of journals. The original journals are kept in The Ohio State University Archives.

(1896) Jay Cooke Jr., his wife, Clara Moorhead Cooke, and family are shown during dinner in the first floor's large north side room, which was used for dining.

